WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1893.

It needs to be remarked of the great financial leaders who were listed in last night's Bulletin as the compeers of the ex-Hawaiian premier that they have made fortunes of their own in the past and have the ability to make others. As to their present hardships, these are largely due to changes in the state of the money market or to the usual and unavoidable vicissitudes of business. None of the statesmen named lost their wealth by foolish and inexcusable prodigality, nor were they regardless or ignorant of money values. Had they been of the class that squandered their means on every passing whim they would never have been entrusted with the business of a commonwealth. It is not an impeachment of ability to lose money. The test is how it was lost.

PAYMASTER SULLIVAN, who is on trial at Mare Island for embezzlement, was one of the leading Royalist sympathizers whom the navy supplied Honolulu with last winter. His criticisms of Captain Wiltse and others finally brought him a reprimand from his commander. It is recalled that Mr. Sullivan's soul was deeply vexed at the "indecent" of "stealing the islands" away from their "rightful owners," and that he could hardly say too much against those whom he deemed responsible for "the scandal." The Royalist leaders took much comfort in Sullivan, who was a man after their own hearts. It is to be hoped that they will have proper sympathy for him now.

We extend the Trousseau revelations another span this evening by showing that the conclusions of the report of the India Commission were rejected in their most important features by the great medical body to which they were made. The conclusions, as the public is aware, are the ones which Dr. Trousseau relies upon to bolster up his political case against the Provisional Government. Now that their value has been called into question by some of the greatest medical names of the century, we leave Dr. Trousseau to make the most of them—which will be little enough, heaven knows.

We have said little about the mid-winter fair at the Coast metropolis, because it has been described to us in private correspondence with San Francisco editors as a railway freight enterprise which was likely to come to nothing. However, other reports speak of it as practicable and certain to succeed; in which event it would not be a bad idea for the Honolulu merchants and Island planters to unite and make a distinctive Hawaiian exhibit there. The benefits of a really competent display would be marked.

UPON the silver question the Americans are between the Devil and the deep sea. In the West they must have free silver or a panic. In the East they must defeat the silver men or go on the lee shore of business adversity. So far there seems to be no middle ground upon which they can meet and compromise, the Sherman act itself being a compromise measure and having proved the very source of the present troubles. Unfortunately, another sectional issue has arisen in the great republic.

THE Esquimault story, of which we print the full text, is good hot-weather reading, and that is about all. Seals may come and seals may go, but England and the United States are not going to war about them. There is no medieval foolishness in the foreign office of either country.

The Ship Had to Go.

Strenuous efforts were made by the hotel people as soon as the Rio Janeiro came in this morning to have the vessel lie over till 10 P. M., a concert by the ex-Queen's band being offered as an inducement. Captain Smith, however, could not accede to their wishes, as his orders are to leave port by daylight whenever it is practicable, and as he expressed himself, "My destination is San Francisco, and the quicker I get there the better my owners will be pleased." He postponed sailing till 6 P. M. in order to give his passengers a run on shore when he could have only a small amount of freight.

CIVIL WAR IN NICARAGUA.

The President and Commander of the Army Made Prisoners.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The Herald's correspondent at Managua says: Civil war has again broken out in Nicaragua. The citizens of Leon are in arms against the Government established when Sacaca was overthrown. More important still is the fact that President Don Salvador Machado and General Avilez, the commander-in-chief of the army, are held as prisoners by the revolutionists.

The President and General were paying a visit to Leon. Their presence there probably caused the rebels to open their fight at a time when the President and commander of the army could be easily got under control.

Having made the President and General Avilez prisoners, the revolutionists seized the military barracks, which were yielded without opposition. Besides taking position of the barracks, the revolutionists seized three steamers on Lake Managua. These will be used in transporting their troops. News of the outbreak reached Managua this afternoon.

It is not known how strong the revolutionists are, but it is feared that they are supported by the Republic of San Salvador. Troops have been ordered to reach Leon and quell the revolt and release President Machado and General Avilez from prison.

A dispatch from Nicaragua states that Henry Craner of San Francisco, who has joined the forces of President Sacaca, and who was supposed to have been killed while fighting at Barranca Pass, is not dead, as reported, but has transferred his allegiance to the other side, and now holds a commission as Captain and Aide-de-Camp to Salvador Machado.

ORDERS FOR THE NAVY.

Captain Howison to Stay at Vallejo—Two Cruisers Coming.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Secretary Herbert has taken action in two cases of importance concerning navy-yard commands. Commodore Kirkland will remain as commandant of the League Island (Pa.) Navy Yard. This will probably result in sending Commodore Staunton to the South Atlantic station.

The Secretary also, to-day issued an order making Captain Howison commandant of Mare Island.

An order was issued at the Navy Department to-day detaching Commander Harrington from duty as inspector of lighthouses and giving him command of the Yorktown, relieving Commander Frank Wildes. It is the intention of the Navy Department that the ship shall sail next week for San Francisco.

She will stop at some of the South American ports and be subject to a change of orders should necessity require the same. On her arrival at San Francisco, and after the making of necessary repairs, she will probably be ordered to the Hawaiian Islands to relieve one of the American vessels there. It is probable that the Charleston will accompany the Yorktown on her long voyage. It is understood that the Philadelphia, now on her way to the Samoan Islands, will relieve the Boston at Honolulu about Christmas time. The Boston will sail for San Francisco to undergo extensive repairs.

NOT ENOUGH GUESTS.

Few More Sunday Fairs in Store at Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Little doubt is now expressed among the exposition directors that Sunday closing of the World's Fair will shortly become an assured fact. When the executive committee of the exposition met this afternoon there was a discussion of the question of Sunday closing, but the matter was too sweeping for the committee to handle and the question was referred to the general meeting of directors, which takes place at the World's Fair grounds on Friday.

Nothing was said about the project to cut down the price of admission to twenty-five cents. *This has been considered impossible, and the question of Sunday closing resolved itself upon the point as to whether it was advantageous to the exposition to keep open on the Sabbath. The comparatively small attendance on the last four Sunday days has perplexed the directors, who hoped to see a much larger crowd of working people at the fair. It is now highly probable that the World's Fair will not be opened after next Sunday, as it is expected that the directors will vote for Sunday closing at the next meeting.

THE CHOLERA ABROAD.

Suspicious Illness of Hussars at the Garrison of Posen.

BERLIN, July 22.—Seventy-five hussars of the garrison at Posen have been suddenly taken ill. A diagnosis has not yet been taken, but it is feared that the disease is cholera.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 12.—The city is officially declared to be in a healthy condition. Last week's official report on the cholera epidemic gives the following figures for the provinces where the disease prevails: Podolia, 310 new cases, 100 deaths; Kherson, 18 new cases, 9 deaths; Toula, 8 new cases, 3 deaths.

ALEXANDRIA (Egypt), July 12.—Eighty-five cases of cholera and forty deaths are reported in the hospital here.
